GOLDEN IRREFUTABLE

The historical record shows that Jewish communities have been systematically expelled from at least 109 sovereign entities over a span of 2,500 years, often under accusations of dual loyalty, economic exploitation, and subversion. In the modern era, the State of Israel—founded by descendants of Irgun and Revisionist Zionism—together with its captured U.S. government patron, has institutionalized a mirror pattern. Through the FTO list, sanctions, and military designations, over 120 organizations, financial entities, and militant groups (primarily those resisting Israeli occupation or U.S. regional policy) have been declared "terrorist" and effectively exiled from the international financial and political system. Their members are targeted for drone strikes, their assets frozen, and their very existence criminalized.

The irony is stark: the people who suffered the most expulsions in history now lead the effort to expel others from the global order, using the full apparatus of a superpower they have captured. The pattern of "infiltrate, subvert, control" – the Irgun doctrine – has been inverted: the host society is now the United States, and the targeted groups are those who refuse to submit to the Irgun-lineage project.

Historical expulsions of Jews: ~109 sovereign entities. Modern "exiles" (designated entities): 120+ and growing. The scale of modern exclusion is now larger in raw count than the historical expulsions that defined Jewish trauma. The victim has become the architect of a new exile.
